

Introducing Our Pleasant Professionals

Dane Boudreau, PECT Account Manager

Dane Boudreau brings to AA Services a unique level of education and world knowledge that he translates to a high degree of professionalism in his work. Joining AA Services in 2005, Dane attained his PECT certification from the International Kitchen Exhaust Cleaning Association.

At AA Services, Dane has corporate management responsibilities that include purchasing and National Account Technical Support.

While growing up, Dane lived in six countries ranging from Australia to Indonesia to Great Britain, along with the United States. He has four-plus years of college education at the University of Houston and other schools. More recently, he volunteered with AmeriCorps in St. Louis where he met his wife, Bridget. Dane's hobbies also reflect his diversity of interests, including woodworking, welding, automobile restoration, drawing, painting and sculpting.

"I strive to meet and exceed the customer's expectations so that our job is the best they have ever received. At AA Services, we stand behind our work. We also educate our customers about NFPA 96 and our industry."
