

Introducing Our Pleasant Professionals

Paul “Laos” Proyaseng Account Manager

Laos Proyaseng overcame great odds to escape Communist rule in Laos to start a new life in the United States. He had been studying for the priesthood in 1975 when the Communists took over. After facing religious discrimination and being forced to go to welding school, he and his brother in 1980 swam across the Mekong River to escape to Thailand.

He came to St. Louis in 1984 and worked in a food production facility for many years before joining AA Services in 2009.

Today, Laos is married and has five children. He enjoys soccer, tennis and volleyball. Faith remains a focal part of his life.
