

Introducing Our Pleasant Professionals

Paul Ifland, PECT Technical Services Manager

Paul Ifland, PECT is the most experienced cleaner with AA Services of Missouri, having completed over 10,000 jobs in 20 years of work in the industry. As Manager of the Technical Service Division, Paul conducts training and schedules the workers for each job site. He is the in-house resource on technical issues related to kitchen exhaust cleaning.

Paul is one of few individuals to achieve a perfect score on the PECT certification exam from the International Kitchen Exhaust Cleaning Association. Paul is the most requested Account Manager of the company.

In his spare time, Paul enjoys sports, traveling and using his computer.

“I strive to provide the best service possible. I want my customers to be completely satisfied.”

“AA Services has more certified workers than any other cleaning company. We follow up with every customer to make sure the job is done right.”
